

HOLLIE LEWIS

Hi, I'm Hollie! I'm 25 and I live in Bungay on the Norfolk/Suffolk border with my fiancé. I currently work 9-5 in an office based job and work hard outside of the day job to create Just Hollie. I absolutely love to write and this blog is my passion; I adore creating content and am hoping to keep growing.

THE BLOG

Just Hollie is a lifestyle blog aimed mainly at women in their twenties living in the Norfolk/Suffolk area. The blog was created in 2016 and features posts about everything from food, local reviews, beauty, family and everything else a young woman comes across in life. I am plant based so most of the food reviews and recipes are vegan and also I am a qualified hair stylist and makeup artist so I love a product or two!

I first and foremost create my own content for Just Hollie organically but I do occasionally work with brands where I believe this to be beneficial to my readers. I can review products, create sponsored content (whether it be a blog post or on another social media platform), write guest posts/articles and I am always open to new ways to collaborate.
